

The Third Phase of Navy SEAL Training is Land Warfare. SEAL candidates spend nine weeks training in basic weapons, demolition and small unit tactics.

We'll train you in three days.

Introducing

LAND WARFARE AN EXPLOSIVE ADVENTURE

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Who teaches this? Our lead instructor is a former Navy SEAL. His military assignments include service as an operational Team member with SEAL TEAM 2 and SEAL TEAM 4. Since leaving the Navy he has worked worldwide in many high threat countries as an instructor and security professional.

Where is the training camp? Training is completed at the Direct Action Resource Center's wilderness training facility, located an hour's drive from Little Rock, Arkansas. The 3000 acre property features a luxury hunting and fishing lodge surrounded by lakes, forest and rugged terrain. The facility has its own private airstrip.

Do I need any prior training? No. The training is real and intense but is suitable for anyone in reasonably good physical condition.

What is the cost? $3495 plus lodging and air travel.

Where do we stay? Lodging is required at the camp and is paid separately. The cost is roughly $150 per night and includes meals and use of the facility.
